The Society for the History of Emotions

The Society for the History of Emotions (SHE) is an international professional association for scholars interested in past and present emotions as culturally and temporally situated phenomena. SHE is a project of the Australian Research Council Centre of Excellence for the History of Emotions.

SHE's aims are to:

- Produce the biannual journal Emotions: History, Culture, Society (EHCS), dedicated to understanding emotions in historical, social and cultural contexts, and to explore the role of emotion in shaping human experience, societies, cultures and environments;
- Provide global information, networking and collaborative opportunities for scholars of emotions;
- Support events and organise a biennial conference to further knowledge of the history of emotions.

Emotions: History, Culture, Society (EHCS) is a peer-reviewed interdisciplinary biannual journal published by Brill NV (Leiden) on behalf of the Society for the History of Emotions (SHE).

The journal aims to examine: the ways emotion is conceptualised and understood in different temporal or cultural settings, from antiquity to the present, and across the globe; the impact of emotion on human action and in processes of change; and the influence of emotional legacies from the past on current social, cultural and political practices.
