

The ARC Centre of Excellence for the History of Emotions (Europe 1100-1800) presents:

NAMING PAIN

Thursday 20th August 2015

Irwin Street Building, The University of Western Australia

Convened by Yasmin
Haskell and Kirk Essary

Image: "Pain", in Sir Charles Bell, The anatomy and philosophy of expression as connected with the fine arts (London, 1844), p. 157. Courtesy of the Wellcome Library.

PROGRAM

| | |
|--|--|
| 9.00 – 9.15 | Welcome and Introduction- Yasmin Haskell (The University of Western Australia) |
| 9.15 - 10.30 | Ancient Philosophy- Han Baltussen (The University of Adelaide) Respondents: Kirk Essary and Sergio Starkstein |
| 10.30 - 10.45 | Coffee Break |
| 10.45 - 12.00 | Early Modern Medicine - Anna Corrias (Princeton University) Respondents: Susan Broomhall and Yasmin Haskell |
| 12.00 - 12.45 | Lunch Break |
| 12.45 - 2.00 | Medieval Medicine – Naama Cohen Hanegbi (Tel Aviv University) Respondents: Michael Barbezat and Andrew Lynch |
| 2.00 - 2.15 | Comfort break |
| 2.15 - 3.30 | Modern Psychiatry – Sergio Starkstein (The University of Western Australia) Respondents: Danijela Kambaskovic and Han Baltussen |
| 3.30 – 3.45 | Coffee break |
| 3.45 - 5.00 | Early Modern Religion - Kirk Essary (The University of Western Australia) Respondents: Michael Barbezat and Yasmin Haskell |
| 5.00 - 5.15 | Conclusion |
| Informal drinks at the University Club | |